

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

THEO. E. BARTLEY, - Business Manager
TUESDAY, NOVEMBER, 12 1899

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Mr. Q. C. Atkinson, of Clarksville was in the city Sunday.

Miss Fannie Frankel is the guest of the Misses Kleiman of Clarksville. Sam Frankel, Jake Samuels and Lee Harris spent Sunday in Clarksville.

Mrs. Dr. L. J. Harris and Mrs. T. H. Boyd are in Clarksville visiting relatives.

Misses Mamie Small, Anna Bell King and Nannie Barnes left for Allentown yesterday, after a pleasant visit to Mrs. Ike Burnett.

Miss Lizzie Givens, daughter of Judge M. C. Givens, of Morgantown, was in the city yesterday enroute for Hopkinsville, where she will visit friends.—Henderson Journal.

Dr. R. R. Bourne, who recently returned from a two years' stay in Los Angeles, Cal., came over from Clarksville a few days ago and is visiting his friends in this city. He says he has had enough of California and has come back to ask forgiveness and permission to spend the rest of his days in Kentucky. He has not decided whether he will locate here again or in some other Kentucky city.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Two New Trains.

Beginning last Sunday the L. & N. road put two new through passenger trains on this division, which make close connections at Evansville with the Chicago express and at Nashville with the New Orleans cannon ball trains. These trains will stop at all stations between Evansville and Nashville, and will pass each other at Trenton, giving Hopkinsville four trains each way, which will be a welcome addition to our traveling facilities. The new trains will be known as 91 and 92. Following is a list of the passenger trains now on this division:

TRAINS SOUTH.
Express	4:43 a. m.
Accommodation	5:10 a. m.
Chicago Express	1:07 p. m.
Mail	3:17 p. m.
TRAINS NORTH.
Mail	9:50 a. m.
Southern Express	2:25 p. m.
Accommodation	3:45 p. m.
Express	10:25 p. m.

The County Wheel.

The County Wheel met in this city Friday in secret session, a large attendance being on hand from 25 wheels. On Saturday a public meeting was held and about 250 of the wheels formed a procession and paraded the principal streets. After the parade, the crowd returned to the Court house where speeches were made by Mr. Jesse Harper, of Illinois, and Col. J. W. McDowell and others. The exercises lasted all day, and adjournment being held for dinner. It was a great day for this rapidly growing organization. Their parade was a big success and the speeches were calculated to enthuse the membership and inspire them with courage and determination in their good work.

Died in Church.

Hannah Gibson, wife of Jim Gibson, fell dead in the colored Methodist church Friday night while services were in progress. She arose from her seat and threw up her hands as if to shout and suddenly fell forward on her face and expired in five minutes. Her death was from apoplexy. The affair created a tremendous sensation in the church, and the services were brought to an abrupt end.

The Losses Adjusted.

The losses by the fire of Oct. 30 have about all been adjusted. Green & Nourse were paid $1,791.25; Mrs. Hart $600; W. R. Bowles $315; Alex. Gilliland $400. All of the insurance on the Hord building, $3,000, will probably be paid and the block rebuilt at once. Estimates are now being made by Forbes & Bro.

Tried to Kill Himself.

A man named Walker, from Fulton county, secreted a case knife from the patients' breakfast table at the Asylum yesterday and upon getting to his room attempted suicide by cutting his throat. The cut is an ugly one but not dangerous.

Insurance Paid.

Mrs. Leo M. Wood, of Bellevue, has received $1,964.37 on a $2,000 policy which her husband held in one of the companies represented by a local agency. The balance of $45.63 was an unpaid premium, which was deducted.

Pomona Grange.

The Pomona Grange of Christian county, composed of the five granges of this county, and the Trenton grange of Todd county, will meet with the Church Hill grange on the fourth Friday in this month (Nov. 22).

The Ricketts Trial.

The examining trial of Lige Ricketts, the slayer of Bud Woolsey, will be held to-day, before Judge Winfree. Ricketts is out on a bond of $5,000. The plea will be self-defense.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to return my most sincere thanks to the ladies and gentlemen, for their assistance in saving my goods in the late fire. Such kindness will long be remembered.

Respectfully,
Mrs. Carrie Hart.

Headquarters for city transfer is still at Jno. G. Ellis' livery stable. W. S. Davidson.

A freight wreck near Pembroke delayed the early train 5 hours yesterday morning.

Rev. Mr. Robertson, of Louisville, preached two interesting discourses at the Baptist Church Sunday.

A wagon load of large hickory nuts was brought from Canton last week and retailed at 75 cents per bushel.

Brame and Smith are both at large, although some enterprising detective might make $1,200 by catching the pair.

J. A. Konezka, the new jeweler, advertises in this issue a matter of much interest to the ladies. Read what he has to say.

The regular passenger train has been taken off the C. & P. division of the L. & N. and only the mixed train will be run hereafter.

Mr. Palmer Graves is building a dwelling house on his farm on the Cadiz pike, purchased this year. He will try to have it ready for occupancy by Jan. 1.

Rev. Mr. Holsclaw preached a sermon to the children at the Union Sunday School, which met at the C. P. Church Sunday afternoon.

A. C. Banks is meeting with much success in getting subscriptions to the band fund, and the prospects are encouraging for a band at an early day.

Read his advertisement on this page for particulars.

The insurance on the old Episcopal church property, burned on Oct. 24, was adjusted last week at $700. The full insurance of $1000 would have been paid but for a mistake in the policy, which left some fixtures uncovered.

Eq. M. D. Davis, one of the best-known and most popular members of the County Court, is to-day announced as a Democratic candidate for county judge. He is from the Beverly district and will prove a very strong candidate in South Christian.

The Princeton Banner had a drawing on the 2nd. Three of the best prizes were drawn in Trigg county. R. A. Sizemore and S. C. Sizemore, of German Springs, drew a top buggy and gold watch, respectively, and Fannie Froman, of Montgomery, got a Sewing Machine. None of the premiums came to this county.

When the square on the west side of the passenger depot has been meted the railroad company should put up a railing on the track side and let all passengers enter the waiting rooms from the west side doors and pass through to the platform when getting on trains. This would enable the crowds to be kept back and out of the way. The expense would be trifling and much trouble would be avoided.

Clarksville is jubilating over the following proposition submitted last week:

Yours respectfully,
E. Newton,
President.

A PLEASANT AFFAIR.

Miss Johnson's Reception Friday Evening.

The most notable affair of the season was the reception tendered by Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Webb, to their niece, Miss Ellen Johnson, of Louisville, on last Friday evening. At nine o'clock couples began to appear and soon the elite of Hopkinsville were tripping the light fantastic to the merry music made by an Italian band. At the hour of twelve the guests were summoned to supper, where all the delicacies the heart could desire were served in an elegant manner. Dancing was then resumed at 2 o'clock, with a cordial farewell. All departed for their homes, united in the opinion that this was one of the most enjoyable evenings ever spent in our social circles.

The following is a list of those present:

Bailey at their home from 1 until 3 p. m., after which Mr. and Mrs. Boyd will leave for their future home at Jackson, Miss.—Clarksville Tobacco Leaf.

Mr. Joseph Couch, of Webster county, and Miss Ellie Winstead, of Madisonville, were married Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. A. F. Winstead, the bride's father, Elder J. F. Story officiating.—Hustler.

The credit was inadvertently left off an article taken from one of the Clarksville papers, which appeared in this column Friday.

Mr. Eugene Parrish, formerly of this county but now of Paragould, Ark., was married recently to Miss Hattie Van Patton, of Forest City, Ark. Mr. Parrish is a promising young lawyer and has already achieved much reputation throughout northeastern Arkansas.

Brakeman Killed.

(Henderson Journal.)

J. Clarence Guy, a brakeman on the L. & N. railroad, was killed Sunday night on the road between Madisonville and Lexington, from the effects of falling between two cars and being run over. He was taken to Lexington for medical treatment and both of his legs amputated just above the knee. He died just at the conclusion of the operation. Guy had been in the employ of the L. & N. about 22 years of age. His parents live at McMansburg, Champagne Co., N. Y. Guy had given in his name to his employer as O. K. Jones, but when hurt gave the attendants his true name.

AL. G. Field & Co's Minstrels.

Those who went to see Field's minstrels Thursday night expecting to see a good show were not disappointed. The performance had so many new and original features that there was nothing "chestnutty" about it. Instead of having his men arranged in rows with "and men" to crack stale jokes and manipulate tambourines, he has them scattered around a camp fire when the curtain rises, where they can amuse themselves and the audience to the best advantage. There are 22 men in the company, most of them capital artists. The juggling of Leonzo and the balancing of Estus have never been equaled in this city. The feats of both are truly wonderful. Al. Field, the best negro character on the stage, takes a prominent part in the program and appeared at his best. He celebrated his 40th birthday with his entertainment here. He is a favorite in Hopkinsville and has been here every season for several years. Mr. Field is a Virginian, by birth but lives in Columbus, Ohio, where he has a small family. He is an ardent Democrat and brought down the Democratic part of the show several times by hits on the Ohio election. Off the stage he is a big looking fellow, clever, jolly and popular. He has been 20 years on the stage and for 5 years has been running his own company. He never fails to draw well here, although he has invariably struck bad weather in the past.

The Humanophone Concert.

The ladies of the Episcopal church gave a very pleasant entertainment at Mr. Wm. Cowan's Friday evening. The admission price was ten cents, the proceeds to be given to the church. A large crowd attended and the ladies made $13.50. Following is the program which was carried out:

Instrumental solo—Miss Lizzie Cox.

Recitation, "Out of the Fire"—Miss Lillie Rust.

Vocal Duet—Mrs. H. J. Stiles and Miss Katie McDaniel.

Reading—Mrs. Jno. O. Rust.
